Level of nursing home care is discussed

By ROBERT H. NELLIS
Under persistent questioning by James P. Green, District 4, and member of the Finance Committee of the County Board, it was determined the Nursing and Health Committee has determined the level of nursing care in the Lee County Nursing Home independently of what is provided in private nursing homes.

What Green was told is the committee determined the level of care of patients which is humane and decent without regard to what care patients are given in private homes.

The questioning took place today at a meeting of the Nursing and Health Committee and other members of the County Board.

Seven members, other than committee members, attended the meeting and, according to two spokesmen, would not be paid per diem fees because it was not a properly called meeting for those other than the committee members.

The Finance Committee member wanted to know why the committee had not tried to "get a grip on expenses," maintaining if costs are not brought under control, "a raise in revenues will not do any good."

Green contended the level of care in a public nursing home should not be better than a private paying citizen could receive in a proprietary nursing home.

"To be paying your own way and receiving less care than is provided to public aid patients in a county home disturbs me," commented Green.

Charles Dunphy, District 1, member of the Nursing and Health Committee, disputed Green's contention, declaring, "A county home should be a criteria of what nursing home service should be."

Green replied, "If you spend more money here than a private home spends, the care should be better.

"This committee should decide if it wants the county to provide superior care."

"The employee costs should be the same for a public 100-bed nursing home and for a private home with the same number of beds, unless the public one is providing superior care."

"Persons ought to live within their means and if they are in a public home which is costing the taxpayers to operate they would not receive superior care."

Dunphy said Ray Brown, president of Medical Facilities, Inc., of Broken Bow Neb., told the committee how to run the nursing home without a deficit.

"When he was here he told us: 'Put these old people in bed and leave them there where they like to stay, don't get them up.'"

"What about rehabilitation programs?" Let them alone to die happy."

"They don't want to get up and walk around," related Dunphy.

"We were not willing to operate the nursing home like that," concluded the Nursing and Health Committee member.

When the discussion turned to how to increase revenues, committee members reported admission policies may be changed to take in only so many public aid patients, but no one present wished to do that.

Mrs. Grace Balser, District 4, member of the Nursing and Health Committee, revealed the state has two standards for licensing nursing homes, one for public and another for private homes.

"The state demands more of public homes and checks them closer than it does private homes," charged Mrs. Balser.

Replying to Green, Mrs. Balser said, "We can't help it if a private paying patient cannot get the level of nursing care we provide in a proprietary home, all we can do is decide what we consider to be a humane and decent level of nursing care."

Ernest Norden, chairman, Nursing and Health Committee, predicted the home could operate on a break-even basis on a full year operation, provided public aid payments for a resident is raised by $10 to $20 per month.

"The experience we had last month was to realize revenues of $43,000 against expenses of $44,000," related Norden.

Dunphy prophesied, "I believe the nursing home can operate next year, dis-regarding the $82,000 mortgage payment.

and lose not more than $15,000 to $20,000."

In addition to the daily rate charged, the home could make add-ons for extra care needed by certain patients and there was some support for this proposal.

The policy could be to reduce the level of nursing care given patients, thus lowering the salary costs, but there was little sentiment for this.

Green suggested the committee bring a recommendation to the board concerning this cost-cutting proposal.

Another income-increasing plan, to assess townships for the difference between the amount paid by public aid and the cost per patient for each resident from the township in the nursing home, brought guarded comment.

Most township supervisors who were present suggested they would hesitate to accept this plan for a long-range basis.

SENATE TREND— This chart shows the trend in the makeup of the U.S. Senate following the election. The trend is computed by adding the number of races in which each party has won or is leading plus officeholders not subject to election this year. (Editor's note: two seats are still undecided.) Smallest voter turnout since 1946

WASHINGTON (AP)—Voter turnout for Tuesday's elections fell to the lowest level of any year since 1946, with an unofficial count showing that 38 per cent of the voting age population cast ballots.

"It's disheartening that voters personally affected both by Watergate and our economic crisis did not turn out in higher numbers," Ruth Clusen, president of the League of Women Voters, said Wednesday.

The turnout Tuesday, tabulated in an Associated Press survey, was the lowest since 1946 when 37.1 per cent of the voting age population exercised the right to vote, according to U.S. Census Bureau figures. The lowest figure on record is 32.5 per cent for 1942, when millions of men were away from home because of mobilization for World War II.

The official figure for Tuesday may turn out to be less than 38 per cent. The Census Bureau bases its figures on the vote cast for all House races, which usually is less than the vote in statewide races which was used for the AP calculation.

Little work in lame duck session is expected

WASHINGTON (AP)—The sweeping gains Democrats scored in Congress, especially in the House, could mean that the lawmakers will do little more than mark time in the lame-duck session that opens Nov. 18.

Major decisions on economic and social programs, most of which had little chance of enactment this year in any case, are more likely than ever to be left to the more Democratic, more liberal and younger Congress that will convene in January.

There will be a strong effort in the Senate to conclude action this year on the foreign trade bill, which the House has passed and which was brought to the verge of Senate approval by a compromise on Soviet emigration policies.

Some senators also have promised to try to attach to any available House bill some version of the tax on oil company windfall profits, which has been stymied in the House.

But wide-ranging tax revision, a national health plan, strengthening of the unemployment compensation system and a big public service job program are issues likely to be left to a Congress where more sweeping solutions could have more support.

It was increasingly doubtful that Congress would conclude action this year on the nomination of Nelson A. Rockefeller as vice president.

The Senate may finish its part, even though additional hearings have been scheduled. In the House, where the Judiciary Committee has not begun hearings, it seemed likely that the final vote would come in 1975.

In the Congress that convenes in January, Democrats are assured at least 291 House seats, more than two-thirds, with three races still unsettled. In the Senate, they will have at least 61 out of 100.

President Ford and Democratic congressional leaders exchanged post-election statements pledging cooperation in solving the nation's problems, but the record gave no assurance they will see eye to eye on the methods.

Senate Leader Mike Mansfield told Ford, "I would hope ... now that the election is over we will be able to get together and work cooperatively. I know you want to, I know the Senate wants to and I feel sure the House wants to."

"Let me assure you that will be the case," Ford replied.

After a House leadership conference at which Speaker Carl Albert was reported to have urged that solving the economic problems be put ahead of partisan interests, an aide said, "The name of the game is going to be compromise."

"We may make suggestions, but if anything is to be done, Ford is going to have to agree."

Use of city workers defended

Burke answers sidewalk, fence charges

James G. Burke, city street commissioner, answered charges today concerning City Street Department employees working on private property.

The charges concerned sidewalk work at Commerce Towers (the old Reynolds Wire Building) owned jointly by Burke, Paul Long and Don Dewey; as well as work along a fence line between city property at Oakwood Cemetery and property owned exclusively by Paul Long adjoining it to the east.

"The city is paying the full cost of replacing the sidewalk at Commerce Towers," Burke asserted when asked about the project.

"The precedent for such work was set in the 1960s when First Street was being rebuilt," he continued. "At that time, wherever there were stairwells into basements or wells under sidewalks, the city agreed to pay all the cost of closing the openings and refinishing the sidewalks."

"If the property owners preferred to keep the wells, the city agreed to do the work and charge them for the difference between the repairs and closing up the wells.

"In closing up such a stairwell in the alley between the Dixon Theatre and the Cleodan Candy Co. the city did the same thing. When that problem first came up (the stairwell was deteriorating and in danger of falling in) I reported the problem to the Council and asked for direction in the matter."

"City Attorney Tomas Magdich, Willett, Hofmann engineers and myself researched the matter," Burke's explanation continued, "and we felt a precedent was set in the 1960s during that street-rebuilding job. In the case in the alley, the owner decided to close the stairwell and the city paid the entire cost."

"Getting back to the actual Commerce Towers sidewalk project, Burke stated he felt the city got a bargain in this case."

"I told Paul (Long) and Don (Dewey) it would probably cost them extra money because of my involvement as a city councilman," he offered. "We paid Lindquist Construction Co. nearly $10,000 ourselves to close up all the windows below street level, even though doorways and windows in other projects had been closed at city expense. The city then paid to fill the stairwell and walkway below street level and replacement of the sidewalk. The sidewalk is city property," he emphasized.

"The situation will come up again when we finally rebuild First Street from Ottawa Avenue east. That is scheduled as part of our regular street program. We have put it off because the KSB Hospital is undecided on some of its future plans. When we finally get to the street project the Commerce Towers situation will already be taken care of."

"The Selgestad property next to Commerce Towers has a similar situation. In keeping with past precedent, the city will pay for the sidewalk work and sprinkler lines or things like that which are affected."

The city regularly rebuilds sidewalks in residential areas at no expense to property owners, he concluded. "We keep a list of the ones which need the work the most and try to do them on a regular basis."

The work on the fence line between the cemetery and the Long property was necessitated, Burke said, because trees on city property had fallen across the fence and destroyed it in places.

"Long is going to pay the entire cost of rebuilding the fence," he declared. "Since trees from city property have fallen onto the Long property, we are clearing them off. It's as simple as that. It's all part of being a good neighbor, just as two neighboring farmers would do on a fence which separated their properties."

Nixon testimony may be taken on videotape

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica said today that former President Richard M. Nixon's testimony in the Watergate cover-up trial may have to be taken on videotape in California.

Sirica made the comment after Nixon's attorney, Herbert J. Miller, reported to Sirica that it will be at least two or three months before Nixon can exert any substantial mental or physical effort.

Reporting on Nixon's health as required by Sirica, Miller said it will be an indeterminate time before Nixon can travel any significant distance.

Nixon, hospitalized in Long Beach, Calif., was reported Wednesday to have contracted a slight case of pneumonia, further complicating his condition. He underwent surgery last week for a blood clotting condition.

Miller said he spoke with Sirica's personal physician, Dr. John Lungren, who gave him a detailed description of Nixon's condition.

Miller said Nixon is likely to remain hospitalized for another 10 days or two weeks.

"Because of the patient's weakened condition," Miller said, "it is expected that the earliest time he could participate, without a serious danger to his health, in any activity requiring substantial mental or physical effort would be two to three months."

The report also noted that only members of Nixon's family are allowed to visit for only five minutes of each hour.

"The patient is very weak and easily fatigued," Miller said.

Based on Miller's report, Sirica said, "it may be that someone will have to go to San Clemente and take his deposition on videotape."

Sirica emphasized, however, that he had made no final decision on how to get Nixon's testimony.

Nixon has been subpoenaed by both the prosecution and by defendant John D. Ehrlichman.

The prosecution has indicated that it hopes to be able to make its case without Nixon's testimony.

Ehrlichman's lawyers have said the former president's testimony is vital to their case. The five defendants are unlikely to begin their cases for another month.

Sirica has indicated he will send his own team of three doctors to make an independent examination of Nixon. Today he called on prosecution and defense lawyers to suggest how to proceed as a result of Miller's affidavit.

A Secret Service employee testified Wednesday that Nixon's White House taping system had flaws that make it suspect as a complete record of his White House conversations.

Secret Service technician James G. Baker testified at the cover-up trial that as much as three minutes of some presidential conversations went unrecorded while tape reels were being changed.

Baker, a retired Air Force sergeant, testified as one of a series of witnesses summoned to authenticate 26 White House tapes the prosecution plans to play for the jury.

The prosecution resumed the process of authenticating the tapes today and have said they hope to finish that task without requiring Nixon's testimony.

LAST OF HIS KIND in the one-time furniture making town of Grand Rapids, Mich., wood craftsman Ed Graverson, 41, works carefully on a gift for President Ford. The Kent County Republican party commissioned Graverson to carve the 2½-foot mahogany presidential seal.

Hopes for balanced budget fading fast

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration hopes that President Ford can balance the federal budget for the first time in seven years are fading fast, Treasury Department officials believe.

They chiefly blame the sagging economy, which they feel will reduce the revenues the government would obtain in corporate and individual income taxes. In addition, they expect new spending pressures from Congress to ease recession and unemployment.

"My guess at the moment is that the revenue prospect for fiscal 1976 makes it difficult to assure a balanced budget for that year," said Sidney Jones, counselor to Treasury Secretary William E. Simon.

"The challenge for 1976 is to keep the spending side of the budget under control," said Jones in an interview. "There is a great risk of it getting out of hand."

Another key Treasury official, who did not want to be quoted by name, agreed with Jones' assessment that a balanced budget would be difficult to achieve, especially because of the sagging economy.

In addition, this official said Tuesday's election results, which gave substantial gains to the Democrats, means "we will end up with an extremely liberal 94th Congress."

"Congress will find it extremely difficult to resist big spending."

The Ford administration strategy will be to get as much of its economic program through the final weeks of the lame-duck 93rd Congress, including the 5 per cent income surtax, which already has met with considerable opposition.

Jones said the administration feels the Ford tax program—which also includes an increase in the investment tax credit and tax exemptions for dividends on preferred stock—will stand a better chance of passage in the existing Congress.

In a speech in Chicago Wednesday night, Simon said, in effect, that the existing Congress will be irresponsible if it fails to enact the Ford program promptly.

"If the Congress refuses to act in the next few weeks, we should recognize that position for what it is—a conscious, deliberate decision to let inflation rage on," Simon said.

He added that inflation has helped place the American free enterprise system "in grave danger today."

Simon said the administration will not retreat from its program, despite the election results, although it will be willing to compromise on some points, "especially on details."

But Simon, Jones and other officials made clear the administration will fight any move in the next Congress to reimpose wage and price controls, although they acknowledged there might be increased pressure for such controls.

Treasury officials, who did not want to be quoted, believe the administration would compromise with Congress on the 5 per cent surtax proposal, to have it apply to family incomes above $20,000 or $25,000, instead of $15,000 as originally proposed.

Turks cancel Kissinger visit

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's visit to Turkey has been canceled, caretaker Premier Bulent Ecevit announced today. Kissinger was expected Friday.

Kissinger was to come to Turkey at the end of his current Middle East peacekeeping swing for discussions with Turkish leaders on the Cyprus question and the cutoff of U.S. military aid to Turkey.

The announcement came as 2,000 students from Ankara's Middle East Technical University boycotted classes to protest the Kissinger visit and staged a campus demonstration with signs reading, "Kissinger murderer."

Spiro rises above nattering nabobs

By TOM TIEDE
CROFTON, Md. (NEA) —

When Spiro Agnew opened the door to the Pigeon House Inn here the other afternoon, he was smiling. He chatted lightly with an employee, waved to somebody in the back, then sat down at a table. "How are you today, sir?" the waiter asked. "Fine," Agnew replied, "it's a nice day, isn't it?"

It was indeed a nice day for Spiro Agnew, not only climatically but in other ways as well. One year after resigning in disgrace as the Vice President of the United States, the man who would have been president seems to have overcome the difficulties of transition. Not so for his former chief, of course; but while Richard Nixon lies seriously ill in a California hospital, described by observers as a broken man, Agnew is apparently in good health and fair spirits. Even his financial picture, it's said, is improving.

Friends of Agnew, in fact, are "amazed" at his rebound. A long-time Baltimore confidant who lunched and visited with Agnew recently says: "He's not depressed, he's not cranky. I'm amazed. Ted is sort of an egotist and I would have thought the resignation would floor him for a long time. I think he may be still somewhat bitter because he doesn't think he deserves what happened, but other than that the son of a gun is in good shape—and getting better."

Others who have seen the former official, both privately and from a distance, agree he is holding up nicely. He is trim, kept that way by frequent tennis matches at a private but not expensive club; he dresses well, still in the custom suits and shirts that he favored while residing in higher places; and while he is no longer socially outgoing, preferring instead to spend much of his time at this $150,000 Maryland home, he is no hermit.

Some who know Agnew well believe his public side is one of more bravado than is comfortable. "I think he hurts a lot but won't give the critics the satisfaction of showing it," said one. And to be sure he does have continuing problems which, occasionally, break through his thin skin.

He was so incensed last summer at a World Book Encyclopedia description of his resignation that he wrote an angry letter to the publisher cancelling his order. In a more recent note to a Washington newspaper, Agnew complained of reports he'd been treated leniently ("That is to laugh"). And in England last month he told a reporter: "I can describe what it means to be left alone."

Yet all things considered and compared to Richard Nixon, Agnew seems to be beginning anew rather than ending as old. Says the Baltimore friend: "Remember when he used to rail against the nation's 'nattering nabobs of negativism,' or whatever he called them, well he believed in that. Now he's doing what he believes, going optimistic. He's rolling up his sleeves, in other words. You have to give him credit, it's tough to start all over in life."

In truth, Agnew is not exactly starting all over. Friends have contributed to his debt dilemma (he incurred $200,000 in legal expenses and is reportedly being asked by the government to pay at least $50,000 more in back taxes), and his worldwide contacts have helped him begin a promising new business.

That business, operated out of a $500-a-month (but small) office here, is described as a "consulting enterprise." One known Agnew client is an Indiana land developer who says he pays $100,000 a year for the ex-Vee's services.

Despite the help, though, credit is due Spiro Agnew. The man, a felon who cannot vote during three years of probation, has conducted himself well in his first year of dishonor. He has neither given up, nor retreated behind a defense of recriminations. Instead, as friends say, he has worked on the future rather than over the past.

Cheers. One can't be proud of him in the traditional sense, but it is not difficult for a fair man to wish him and his spirit well.

Fox in the henhouse

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON (NEA)— There is an old saying that where there is power, it will inevitably be used.

That axiom applies just as well to the power of money from the federal government's treasury as it does to the power of money from corporations, unions or trade associations.

The recently approved national clean election law ignores this truism and that should disturb every American.

We have been rightly concerned about the corrupting influence of huge donations to political candidates from milk producers, real estate operators, union political actions funds—any special interest lobbyist. So the law just enacted restricts the size of private donations and the amount of money which can be spent by national candidates.

The law includes provisions for funds raised previously from private sources with $40 million in government funds to go to presidential candidates of the Republican and Democratic parties.

We ought to be as suspicious of huge amounts of federal money being spent in elections as we are of huge amounts of private money. The federal government is not some objective, disinterested oracle divorced from the frailties of man.

The federal government is controlled by human beings and my experience with them has taught me they will devise ways to use that $40 million in money power to control presidential candidates in ways we will not like.

If history is any teacher, these controls will start out as insignificant restrictions which most of us will believe to be wise. They will be so minor that no one will be able to seriously object. Gradually, the web of controls will grow stronger, weakening the independence of the men running for President.

Before casting that thought aside, think back on the 200 years of this country's history. Recall how the federal government has increasingly taken over power from the states, cities and individuals. This accumulation of power has been accomplished through the reinterpretation of laws. It has been made possible through the control of the purse, by the inability of the states to unite and the failure of many states and localities to deal with pressing social and economic problems.

The powers over interstate commerce granted the federal government by the Constitution have been stretched to cover industries and businesses which by no stretch of the imagination are interstate commerce in the original meaning of that term.

The monies voted education in federal bills and through aid to impacted areas have been used to dictate to colleges and secondary and primary schools what some of their policies should be.

The huge federal purchases by the Defense Department and other agencies have been used to force private companies operating in local states to comply with Washington policy.

Welfare programs of the individual states, heavily aided from Washington, have been required in important respects to follow criteria laid down by federal officers. In some cases the federal rulings have resulted in major improvements. In other cases the results have been disastrous.

We should be thoroughly aware of the fact that we are exchanging one set of pressure groups for another. And it should be made clear we do not know where this change will lead. But some points can be made. The pressures exerted by individual donors tend to balance themselves out to some extent.

We have the government to monitor excesses, as in the Watergate case. But if the government is the sole donor in presidential races, who monitors the government?

Voice of the people

To the Editor:

I just learned today that the Park District shopping trip to Long Grove and Woodfield was cancelled. I heard, in a round-about way, the reason it was cancelled was because too many Dixon merchants complained about taking business out of town.

As far as I am concerned, this will do the merchants much more harm than the trip ever could have. I was not planning to spend that much money in Chicago. I mostly wanted to enjoy the sights and the day.

Now, I will do most of my Christmas shopping in Sterling or Rockford and will not buy in Dixon unless I have to. If I knew the names of the complaining merchants, I would boycott them completely.

I would like to say thank you to the man who tried to arrange this trip anyway.

Sincerely,
Sharon Ashby
Dixon, Illinois

To the Editor:

It was with shocked disbelief that I read in the Tuesday's Dixon Evening Telegraph of the cancellation of the shopping trip to Long Grove and Woodfield planned by the Dixon Park District because of adverse reaction of local merchants.

What greed! I was anticipating a pleasant day's outing without having to battle traffic for my daughter and myself.

I certainly did not plan to bankrupt Dixon merchants. How thoughtful of the Dixon Park District to plan something for the ladies, as they have planned a hockey and basketball game trips for the men and boys.

I hope their honest efforts are not going to be thwarted by such a provincial attitude many more times, or they might quit trying altogether.

As for the "Dixon merchants," they can be sure I am not going out of my way to give them any of my Christmas shopping after this petty display.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. Wayne Heckman

REFLECTIONS—Listening to a veteran city official talk earlier this week, who plans to step down after 12 years in municipal government, the message came through, 98 per cent of the citizens make it a pleasure to serve them but the remaining 2 per cent get to be too much sometime.

He is James Ellmaker, mayor of Sterling, who was one of three mayors to address the Dixon Rotary Club on Monday.

"Problems accrue faster than we can solve them today at all levels of government," commented the mayor.

He declared, "In Sterling there is not enough cooperation on the City Council to solve the problems which face us."

Ellmaker noted the time spent by a mayor on city business for a municipality the size of Sterling for the pay he received makes him almost a volunteer servant.

He noted, in his case, the time spent as mayor takes time from his management of his candy making business which has facilities in Mt. Morris, in Amboy and in Texas.

"I took going into government as a challenge," related the Sterling mayor, "but after serving three terms as a commissioner and this term as mayor, I am ready to step down."

Ellmaker said, with pride, "Sterling is moving ahead and has had more commercial growth in the past three years than in the entire history of the city."

Then he philosophically lamented, "growth brings problems and disgruntled people."

He pointed to a $1 million sewer project in which the city is engaged and is plagued with federal project red tape, commenting, "This is only a stop-gap measure, we will have to find another solution after another year and try to get another federal grant."

At this point the mayor recalled, "A major highway project in Sterling is sidetracked by one objector who has managed to hold it up because the road just might go too close to an Indian burial ground."

Talking about Sterling's problems with its sewer project prompted Ellmaker to give some pithy opinions about the federal government as it relates to cities.

"The best government is at the local level, for one reason; mistakes we make are not of the proportions of those by the federal government," asserted the mayor.

"It's been 1½ years since we qualified for a federal grant for our sewer project and before we could get the project going, there has been a change in the federal criteria."

"It does seem as soon as cities have had projects qualified, they change the criteria so you can't get the funding."

"This just may be premeditated," averred Mayor Ellmaker.

He took a swipe at state-level politicians in his comments made previous to Tuesday's election.

Mentioning Gov. Walker's visit to the ribbon cutting of the Ill. 2 freeway at Como recently, he told the Rotarians he asked the governor and other candidate present, "would we all be here today to open a road and plant a tree if next Tuesday was not to be election day?"

Ellmaker reported the governor replied, "Any road can use a tree planted any day."

The mayor revealed he receives from 75 to 80 calls per day and "about 95 per cent of them are from people asking what is best for them and not for the benefit of the city."

He pleaded with Rotarians to back their mayor and councilmen. "It's just not fair for a community to elect five men to office and then tell them to 'take it and run,'" complained Ellmaker.

"Every city official needs the support of the people they serve and we sometimes wonder if anyone cares," lamented Mayor Ellmaker.

Some practical philosophy the mayor said he learned from the late Bill Veeck, who was an executive for the Cleveland Indians and later the Chicago White Sox, was shared with his listeners.

Ellmaker noted he had been a professional baseball scout for many years and learned from Veeck, "People usually are not able to solve their problems because they waste too much time working on problems they cannot solve and too little time on those which can be solved."

The Sterling mayor also had some advice for downtown business interests, "work with your mayor and city council," and to independent merchants he exclaimed, "The problem with you is you are too damned independent."

He counseled merchants to work together and not against each other.

He asserted, "I could not get some people in Sterling to believe there was going to be a mall (Northland) even after they started putting up the bricks."

Ellmaker described housing development as a local problem which is beyond the control of city government.

Today in history

By The Associated Press
Today is Thursday, Nov. 7, the 311th day of 1974. There are 54 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1917, the Bolsheviks overthrew the short-lived Kerensky government in Russia and Nikolai Lenin became the new head of government.

On this date — In 1659, the Pyrenees were fixed as the boundary between France and Spain, ending a 24-year war.

In 1811, the Shawnee Indians were defeated in the battle of Tippecanoe in Indiana.

In 1885, the Canadian Pacific railroad was completed.

In 1918, a false report that Germany had accepted World War I peace terms set off great excitement.

In 1942, the Allied invasion of North Africa began in World War II.

In 1944, Franklin Roosevelt was elected to a fourth term as president.

Ten years ago: A nearly-completed building collapsed in Rio de Janeiro, killing 41 persons.

Five years ago: Sixty-five miners were killed in an explosion in a gold mine in South Africa.

One year ago: In an address to the nation, President Nixon said he had no intention of resigning.

Today's birthdays: Soprano Joan Sutherland is 48 years old. Evangelist Billy Graham is 56.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
CASE B-688: Norman T., aged 35, is an industrial psychologist.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "he began, 'we made a survey of 342 women employees in one of our plants.'

"For with all this furor about the ERA (Equal Rights Amendment), we figured we should take a poll as to whether the women preferred to work for a woman supervisor or a man."

"And we found that over 80 per cent of the girls and women flatly stated they'd rather have a man as their boss."

"So I'll list some of the most frequently cited reasons in order that you can pass them along to your millions of readers."

Boss Preferences

Norman then summarized the view of those 80 per cent, as follows:

(1) Women employees are more petty and picaune about details, whereas men stick to the major issues.

(2) There's a little more romantic stimulation when working for a male boss, even though the woman is happily married.

(3) Widows and older spinster workers also lean upon the male employer much as a substitute father or husband.

Lacking a man in their house, they feel a little more secure and thus happier to be associated with a man even for the eight working hours at the office, store or factory.

(4) Women employers overly magnify the importance of their supervisory position and tend to "pull rank" on their female employees.

(5) Older women bosses also are more inclined to be jealous of younger girl employees, especially if the latter are attractive to men in the firm, or are dated by the latter.

This jealousy is almost an inevitable result, for the older woman of 40 to 50, who by merit and hard work has won her higher status with the company, realizes that a cute 20-year-old stenographer may then marry the head of the firm!

(6) From early childhood, girls have been accustomed to "looking up" to their brothers, fathers and other male relatives.

So they respond naturally to having an employer who is taller and with a deeper voice than that of the usual woman.

(7) They can impose more readily on a male boss as by their headaches and other medical or social problems.

And if they are having trouble with their sweethearts or husbands, the male employer may offer them a wider perspective by giving them the male viewpoint.

Despite the protests of Women's Libbers to the contrary, this survey is fairly typical of the opinions of women, if they can vote anonymously.

Item No. 4 can be explained in part on the fact that it is much more difficult for a woman to attain the same eminence as a man in modern business or the professions.

So, having paid a higher price in ability and hard work, to gain the same type of supervisory position, it is only natural that a woman boss attach more importance to her job status.

For there is a psychological maxim that says we value a thing by the effort it costs us to gain it.

If women thus must expand more effort and brains to win a captain's rating, then she prizes that reward more than does the male who got it with less effort.

Women, whether as mothers or employers, tend to hold girls to the letter of the law, whereas men, like the usual father, are more lenient.

So send for my "Tests for Employers and Employees," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 25 cents and reduce labor friction.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of Dixon Evening Telegraph, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope 25 cents to cover typing and printing costs, when you send for one of his booklets.)

MRS. JOHN OUJIRI

POLO— Miss Beth Ann Scholl, daughter of the Maurice C. Scholls, Polo, and John Charles Oujiri, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Oujiri, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, exchanged marriage vows recently in the Science Ridge Mennonite Church, Sterling. The 10 a.m. ceremony was performed by the Rev. Vernon Sprunger, the bride's uncle, pastor of the First Mennonite Church, Berne, Ind.

Mrs. Milton Schoenleben, Sterling, provided organ accompaniment for vocal selections by Tom Saunders, Polo. Two vases of large white gladioli decorated the altar of the church.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of Quiana jersey which was fashioned with a V-neckline, long bishop sleeves, an attached chapel-length train, and was trimmed with pearls and Venice lace. A bandeau headpiece held the chapel-length mantilla of illusion silk, bordered with Venice lace. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of Phalaenopsis orchids and Woburn Abbey roses.

Since their return from a three-week wedding trip to Colorado, Utah, Disneyland in California, Oregon and Expo '74 in Washington, the newlyweds are residing in Iowa City, Iowa.

The new Mrs. Oujiri received a BS degree in 1973 from Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and an MS degree in physical therapy from the University of Iowa. She was a member of the Phi Omega social sorority, the Tri Beta honorary sorority and the Phi Theta business sorority. She is presently employed as a physical therapist at St. Luke's Methodist Hospital, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Her husband received a BS degree in 1971 from Loras College and is presently attending the University of Iowa College of Medicine. He will receive his MD degree in May, 1975. He was president of the Phi Rho Sigma medical fraternity. He is presently employed as a pediatric diabetic extern for the University of Iowa Hospital, Iowa City, Iowa, while attending school.

Hinrichs-Kuebel wedding ceremony

AMBOY— Altar bouquets of pink and white mums and pew bows decorated the church sanctuary of St. Patrick's Church, Amboy, recently when marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Kathy Hinrichs, daughter of the Eugene Hinrichs, Amboy, and Bernard Kuebel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kuebel, Sublette.

The 11 a.m. ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Donovan, pastor of the church. Mrs. E. P. O'Rourke, Amboy, provided organ accompaniment for vocal selections by Gene Seloveer, Amboy.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white jersey. The bodice featured a tiny V-neckline with Venice lace accents, long full sleeves which were styled with cuffs of Venice lace dotted with tiny seed pearls. The floor-length skirt extended into a full chapel train. The bridal headpiece was an open crown outlined with Venice lace and extended into a mantilla edged with the lace. Her bouquet was an arrangement of white Sweetheart roses, white pompons, pink rosebuds and baby's breath.

Miss Debbie Hinrichs, Amboy, the bride's sister, served as the maid of honor and was attired in a floor-length gown of light pink polyester. The bodice featured a tiny ruffled collar extending into a bib effect and the gown's long full sleeves ended in ruffled cuffs. The dress featured a tiny sash tied in back. She carried a bouquet of pink, blue and white pompons and roses. Her headpiece consisted of flowers identical to the ones she carried.

Miss Marla Truckenbrod, Normal, and Miss Cheryl Kuebel, Sublette, sister of the bridegroom, wore light blue gowns styled identically to the maid of honor's, as were their bouquet and headpieces.

Tony Kuebel, Sublette, the bridegroom's brother, served as best man and groomsmen were Tom Nauman and Dan Oester, both of Amboy. Greg Hinrichs, Amboy, and Dave Kuebel, Ohio, ushered wedding guests.

Tommy Meyers, Rock Falls, the bride's nephew, participated as ring bearer and Miss Angie Boyer, Amboy, was the ceremonial flower girl. She was attired in a floor-length dress of pink, blue, and white gingham checks with an apron trimmed in white eyelet lace. She carried a basket filled with flowers and wore a headpiece of pink, blue and white roses, pompons and baby's breath.

A luncheon at the VFW Club, Dixon, which was held after the ceremony, was catered by the VFW Women's Auxiliary.

Since their return from a wedding trip to Missouri and Southern Illinois, the newlyweds will be residing at 2401 Marquette Road, Apartment B3, Peru, Ill. 61354.

The new Mrs. Kuebel, a graduate of Amboy High School, attended Sauk Valley College and Western Illinois University. Her husband, also a graduate of Amboy High School, attended Carthage College in Kenosha, Wis. He is presently employed as a lab technician at Carus Chemical Co., Inc., in La Salle.

Dear Ann

by Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Are you a big enough person to print a letter in defense of "The Other Woman"? I'm one and know that scene well.

I am 27, have never been married (or even asked), have an excellent position and my own apartment. (Nobody keeps me.) I cook when I please, have my own friends and interests, and most important, my own identity, independence and freedom.

I have known this man for eight years. He was married five years ago. I'm more than happy with our "arrangement." Of course I won't get any alimony when (or if) he decides to move on, and I won't collect any insurance when he dies. I do get a bottle of wine now and then and sometimes flowers, but no big gifts. I don't have my lover Sundays or holidays, and not many weekends. But when we are to gether it's heaven. Our relationship was established because we both wanted it. We've agreed that either of us can call it quits if and when we want to.

Now that you know what I get, I'll tell you what he doesn't get. Curlers in bed, dirty dishes in the sink, squawking kids, bills to worry about and lots of nagging. He receives my undivided attention, lots of loving, a back rub when he is tired, and always soft lights and beautiful music. He sleeps with me because he wants to. He sleeps with his wife because he has to.

Call it an ego trip for both of us, if you like, but what's wrong with it if we need and want it? Will you answer me, please?—Nameless, Natch

Dear Natch: There are names for women like you, but I don't believe that a label would serve any useful purpose in a situation such as this.

If it doesn't bother you that this man knew you for three years and then married someone else, you have a pretty tough hide, honey. Moreover, your ego must be awfully hungry if it can be fed by a back-street affair with a man who is eating his cake and having it, too. You, my dear, are settling for crumbs. Some trip!

Dear Ann Landers: I am so furious I just called my lawyer and asked if I could sue you. He said to forget it.

You, Ann Landers, with your stupid advice, have cost me $60 in swimming lessons. My 11-year-old son was always afraid of the water and finally after every ruse imaginable, we got him to agree to take swimming lessons. He has taken six lessons, which cost $10 each.

The teacher said he is still afraid of the water, but at least he is able to float. We considered this great progress. Then you had to come out and announce that you are a "non-swimmer"—could never learn—and that did it. Now my son says HE is a non-swimmer, just like Ann Landers. He refuses to go back for more swimming lessons.

You've lost a long-time fan in Florida and I want you to know it.—A Mother Who Is Mad

Dear Mad: I hate to lose a fan, but facts are facts. I am a "non-swimmer" and confessed it in the hope that I might make that "non-driver" feel better. (Remember the woman in her 60s who took 40 driving lessons and failed the test four times?)

May be your son will change his mind. I hope so. Swimmers DO have more fun.

Miss Yucus is bride-elect of Mr. Mattison

OHIO -- Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Yucus, Rt. 2, Ohio, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Pamela Kay, to Robert John Mattison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Mattison, 2435 23rd St., Moline.

Pamela is a graduate of Ohio High School and a sophomore at Illinois State University, Normal. Her fiancé, a graduate of Moline High School, is a 1974 graduate of Illinois State University.

Plans are being made for a spring wedding.

Mrs. Sinow to be guest artist at Phidian Art Club

Mrs. Sidney (Ethel Rita) Sinow will be the guest artist for the annual Phidian Art Club Guest Day Musical planned for 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Loveland Community Building. Her program will be "Gregorian to Gershwin."

Mrs. Sinow is a talented Illinois pianist. Born in Chicago, at the age of eight she began her studies with Alma Anderson and Frances Frothingham of the Chicago Musical College. At 18, she moved to Dixon where she continued to study with Mrs. Byron Chastain. In recent years, she has studied with Robert McDowell, pianist in residence at Roosevelt University and Saul Dorfman, Dean of the Piano Department of Roosevelt University. Mrs. Sinow has been winner of several awards in piano competition and has appeared in Orchestra Hall in Chicago. In 1967 she presented a private recital, and in 1968 was guest artist of The Phidian Art Club Music Day Program. Her most recent appearances were as guest artist at the Hot Springs, Arkansas Music Club in October, 1972, and in Ganz Hall at Roosevelt University in 1973.

The Guest Day musical has been arranged by Mrs. James O. Hey, chairman of the Phidian Art Club music committee and her assistants Mrs. John Dixon and Mrs. Howard Edwards Jr. Mrs. Grover C. Moss, Chairman of the hostess committee, will be assisted by Mrs. R. E. Erikson, Mrs. L. W. Feik, Mrs. Howard Edwards Sr., and Mrs. Wilbur Stitzel Jr.

By Oswald & James Jacoby
The student looked horrified when the Professor reached over to dummy and played the ace of hearts at trick one. How could that play be right?

Dummy's king of clubs hit the table next. West dropped the 10. The Professor led the jack and let it ride after East played low. The student's horrified look turned to one of awe when he saw that the Professor was going to make five club tricks instead of the four and wind up with an overtrick.

"How did you know the heart finesse would lose? Why did you play clubs so peculiarly?" the student asked.

"I didn't know about the heart finesse," was the reply. "I really didn't care. The real danger to the hand was that East would gain the lead and play a spade. I had two spade stoppers against a spade lead by West but only one against a spade led by East. Furthermore, I didn't want to let East get in with a club if I could possibly help it. When I let the jack of clubs ride I didn't mind if it lost to the queen. I would be sure of nine tricks in any event."

Buyers shun car showrooms

DETROIT (AP) — U.S. auto makers, saying they can't even get people into showrooms to look at new cars, have reported that domestic auto sales in October plummeted to a 10-year low for the month. Chrysler announced new layoffs.

October sales were down 26.8 per cent from October of last year.

"The problem is consumer concern and confusion about the economy," said a dejected industry spokesman. "People worried as hell about what's happening tomorrow. We can't even get them into the showrooms just to look."

With sales during the last 11 days of the month down 35 per cent from 1973, the four auto companies said October deliveries totaled just 627,521 units, compared with 857,070 the year before.

It was the worst October performance since 1964, when sales were 566,000 units. General Motors reported a 32 per cent decline from October 1973. Ford was off 17.1 per cent, Chrysler dropped 16.6 per cent and American Motors was down 52.5 per cent.

Shortly after reporting its sales drop Tuesday, Chrysler said it is eliminating second shifts at four car assembly plants later this month and laying off 7,100 hourly workers indefinitely.

Affected by the shift cutbacks are the Jefferson Avenue and Hamtramck assembly plants in Detroit; the Newark, Del., plant and the St. Louis facility.

The company also said it is closing the Hamtramck plant for two weeks starting Nov. 11, temporarily idling 8,800 workers.

Chrysler, whose sales fell more than 27 per cent during Oct. 21-31, said it was cutting fourth-quarter auto production by 46,500 units.

One Big Three spokesman said the gloomy economic outlook and consumer resistance to high car prices have driven off potential car buyers.

The Big Three each tacked on record model-introduction price increases in September that averaged $450 a car.

October was disastrous for GM, whose Oct. 21-31 sales were off 39.4 per cent from last year. Monthly GM sales of 327,146 were off more than 150,000 units from October 1973.

Ford sales totaled 195,156, Chrysler came in at 87,811 — a 12-year low for October — and AMC said it sold 17,408 cars.

Including import sales, which were up an estimated 4.3 per cent to 128,000, industry deliveries during the month totaled about 755,500, compared to some 980,000 in October 1973.

FORMER press secretary to President Ford, Jerry TerHorst told students at Central Michigan University he believed the pardon offered ex-President Nixon "smacked of a pre-arranged deal." TerHorst also predicted Nelson Rockefeller's nomination for vice president will not be withdrawn by President Ford.

By LAWRENCE LAMB, M.D.
DEAR DR. LAMB—A relative of mine was put in the hospital complaining of a heaviness on the left side of the chest, and she had numbness in her fingers and arm. After tests were made of the heart, stomach and chest, the results showed she had blood clots in her lungs. Can you explain how this came about?

DEAR READER—Spontaneous occurrence of blood clots is rather uncommon but it occurs. A person may develop a clot or inflammation of the veins in the legs or even in the pelvic region, and the clot may jar loose and pass through the heart to the lungs.

The danger of a loose clot going to the lungs is the reason doctors are usually very careful with a patient who has a clot in the leg veins or an inflammation of the veins.

This problem can develop in active persons as well as inactive persons. It is more apt to occur in the legs if the venous drainage of the legs is slowed. This can occur with constrict-ing wearing apparel. It may occur with sitting too long with pressure on the back of the thighs, as can occur in long airplane rides. That is one reason I recommend getting up and stirring around a little if you are going to be traveling for a long time. It occurs in pregnancy, in part because of the pressure on the veins from the pregnant uterus. And, clots in the legs may occur for no good reason at all.

A loose clot tends to go to the lungs because the clot forms in the veins. The veins all drain to the right side of the heart, and the blood is all pumped from the right heart to the lungs. The clot can't get through the lungs to go on to the left side of the heart and out into the arteries. Clots that cause strokes commonly originate in the left side of the heart and not in the veins.

The clot in the lung is called a pulmonary embolism. It resembles a heart attack, just as you have described it. The doctors need tests, including a heart tracing, blood tests, and sometimes special X-ray tests to determine what the problem really is. Sudden onset of chest pain and breathlessness (often extreme) are two common features of a pulmonary embolism.

DEAR DR. LAMB—Would you advise all adults not to drink milk? Is it true that only children need milk? You may guess I like milk and want to continue drinking it. My weight, blood pressure and cholesterol are no problem. Please advise us, as we are a milk-drinking Senior Citizen group.

DEAR READER—I prefer that everyone get about a quart of milk a day or its equivalent as cottage cheese or butter milk, or a milk substitute. We all need calcium, and a calcium deficiency can increase the chances of having soft bones with a tendency for fractures to occur in later years.

For those who have high cholesterol or other problems, they can use fortified skim milk and uncreamed cottage cheese. The nonfat dry milk powder for cooking is excellent for protein and calcium. You don't have to drink the milk to get your quota. It can be used in desserts, sauces, and any number of prepared foods.

Dayan sees threat to peace talks

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Moshe Dayan says the proposed Arab-Israeli peace conference in Geneva, Switzerland stands threatened because the Palestinian Liberation Organization has been named the representative group for all Palestinians.

Dayan, Israeli war hero and former cabinet defense minister, told a Northwestern University audience Tuesday night that he feels the conference is undermined because the PLO wants a Palestinian state that would encompass Israel.

At an Arab summit meeting last week in Rabat, Morocco, Arab heads of state decided to name the PLO, a terrorist organization, to negotiate with the Israelis in Geneva over Israeli return of the occupied west bank of Jordan to Arab control. The Arab leaders decided to divest Jordan's King Hussein of the right to bargain for and to exert any control over the land if and when the Israelis give it up.

Dayan said the terrorists do not want any partition or division of the area. And that, he said, would result in no Israeli state.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry E. Petersen's first 25 years at the Justice Department were overshadowed in the 26th by the Watergate investigation and accusations that he bungled it.

In the 27th year, the charge lingers and still rankles as Petersen ends his government career.

Hardly anyone outside Washington noticed as Henry Edward Petersen scaled the bureaucratic ladder from a lowly job as an FBI clerk to the powerful position of assistant attorney general in charge of the department's criminal division.

But millions watched during those stormy Senate Watergate committee hearings in 1973 when Petersen exploded in anger on national television.

Under his direction, the original Watergate investigation had yielded only the indictments of the five burglars and G. Gordon Liddy and E. Howard Hunt Jr. The White House high command was untouched when the probe was turned over to a special prosecutor.

Petersen lashed out at his critics, his raspy voice rising in fury.

"That case was snatched out from under us when it was 90 per cent complete!" he shouted.

Throughout the ensuing months, Petersen fired blunt retorts at those who suggested he soft-pedaled the prosecution. Few critics questioned Petersen's integrity, but they argued that he trusted when he ought to have questioned.

The familiar temper flared on one occasion when reporters raised Watergate questions. Petersen gripped a chair, his eyes flashed, an unruly lock of hair fell over his forehead and he stormed, "I am not a whore! I walked through a minefield and came out clean."

Petersen, 53, told reporters Tuesday he hasn't decided what to do but has no plans to write a Watergate book.

"The events of the past couple of years have taken their toll," he said. "I feel that my credibility has been affected and I think that's terribly important in a job such as the assistant attorney general."

Another factor in his decision, was a federal pay system that makes his salary only $100 a month more than his retirement pay will be, he said.

Sears cuts work force

CHICAGO (AP) — Some 300 to 400 employees at the Sears, Roebuck & Co. corporate headquarters have been fired within the last two weeks, the company says.

The layoffs, termed permanent, have resulted in part from a decline in earnings during the first half of the year, a spokesman for the firm said Tuesday. Employees considered in nonessential jobs or who are underperforming are affected. Some have worked for the giant retailing corporation for 15 and 20 years, a spokesman said. Sears, the nation's largest retailer and fourth largest employer, has some 400,000 employees.

Those fired include buyers and assistant buyers, middle-management, merchandising and data processing personnel.

The spokesman said not all the cuts have been made yet.

They represent 5 per cent or less of the total corporate headquarters employees—some 7,000—he said.

"No national directive has been issued on firings," the spokesman said, explaining that local store managers are deciding themselves whether to dismiss employees.

Last month Sears managers were ordered to step up cost-cutting and try to hold "uncontrollable costs" to what they were last year. Some layoffs might result from the cost-cutting, the firm said then.

Election night nod to CBS

NEW YORK (AP) — To sum it up, television's election night show seemed a prognostic ban-zai charge at ABC, a poll-cluttered race at NBC and an exercise in superior graphics and extreme caution at CBS.

Over-all, CBS' effort, anchored by Walter Cronkite, appeared the best, even though it seemed to run on the slogan, "Too early to call yet."

ABC's show, coanchored by Harry Reasoner and Howard K. Smith, was the simplest and most direct in format. They carried most of the show without the region-watchers and trend-watchers CBS featured or the House, Senate and gubernatorial observers displayed at NBC.

The format gave ABC a clear edge in the early hours of the night in giving the basic, undorned "projected" word on winners and losers.

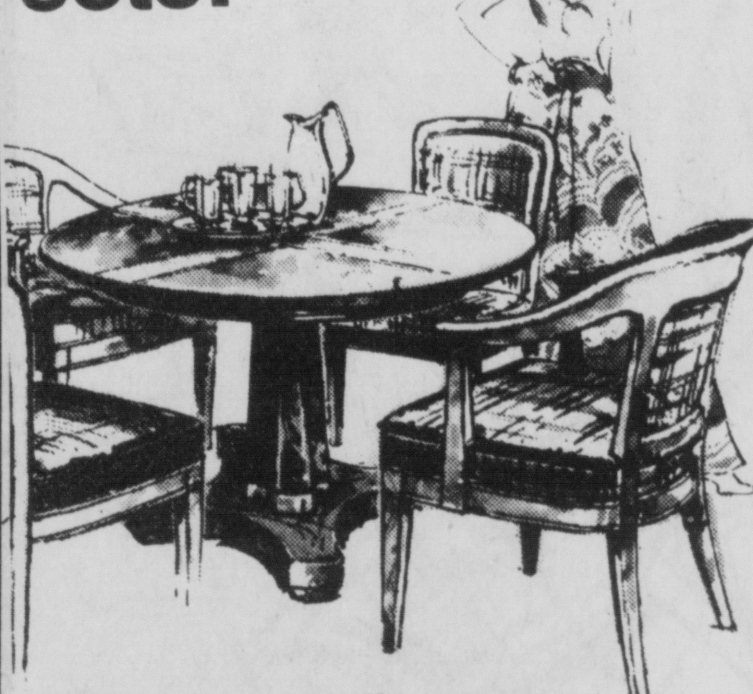

NBC gave ABC a spirited run for its money in the night's projection parade, but that effort frequently was hampered by an NBC at-the-polls poll which kept popping up with annoying frequency.

Said poll, conducted Tuesday at 400 voting spots around the nation, asked such rousing questions as: "The people running the government don't really care about what happens to me. Agree or disagree?"

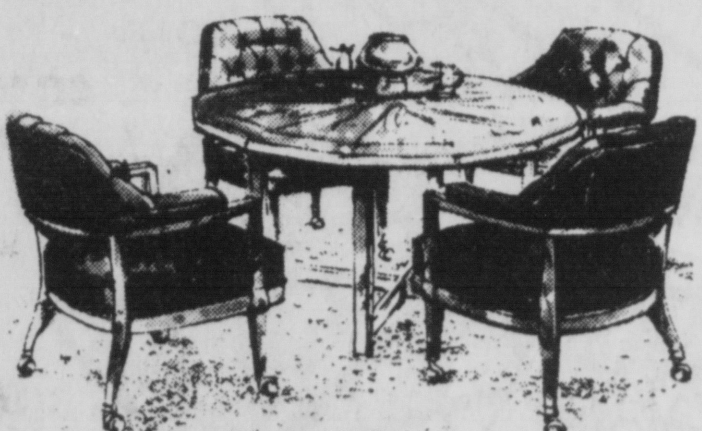

The network's visual displays of candidate votes seemed too cluttered, also, and Barbara Walters and Jim Hartz of the leisurely "Today" show seemed drastically out of place in NBC's busy election night emporium.

Middleman profits on dry beans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The farm price of dry beans, traditionally a high-protein food source for poor people, has tumbled sharply, but middlemen are not passing much of the decline along to consumers, the Agriculture Department says.

The farm price of beans in Michigan, for example, dropped 30 cents per pound, from a peak of 51.5 cents last March to 21.5 cents in September. But the retail price declined only 12.3 cents per pound from its high of 81.5 cents last spring to 69.2 in September.

Production of dry beans — including pinto, lima, navy and great northern — is estimated by USDA at a record harvest of 22 million hundredweight this year, up 31 per cent from the short crop in 1973 which led to the price boost.

The analysis of middleman spreads for beans was included in a vegetable situation report by the department Tuesday. It said "there is clearly a long distance to go before retailers return to more familiar shelf price in relation to commodity cost."

In February 1973, before the bean crunch developed, a one-pound bag of beans nationally sold in retail stores for 25.7 cents, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. At that time, farmers got 11.1 cents per pound.

Michigan and California are the leading dry-bean producers, but the crop is important in a dozen other states.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Heavy rain in Oklahoma and parts of Kansas and Texas have caused "extensive flooding and drought" of newly planted wheat and other fall-seeded grain, says the Agriculture Department.

But elsewhere, rain and snow helped relieve dry topsoil conditions and provided germination and growth of fall-planted grain crops, the department said Tuesday in a weekly weather report.

Aluminum market may bring new life to Utah mining town

MILFORD, Utah (AP) — Increasing world prices of aluminum and fertilizer may soon combine to revive this southwest Utah town of 1,300, once the hub of a silver production area in the last century.

If the new mining boom comes to Milford, 200 miles southwest of Salt Lake City, it could triple the town's population, expand its economy and dump in its lap some of the social and environmental problems faced by other modern western boom towns.

Earth Sciences Inc., a Colorado-based company, says it is considering a mine and mill at Milford to produce alunite, a low-grade aluminum ore. The United States must import most of its bauxite, the prime aluminum ore, and the price of bauxite has risen as rapidly on world markets as that of petroleum.

The company also says it is considering a mining venture in southwest Idaho to produce phosphate to mix with alunite byproducts in fertilizer manufacturing.

The projected Milford mine would be an open pit a mile long and a quarter-mile wide, dug at 8,000 feet in the rugged, barren Wah Wah Mountains south of Utah 21. The mine site is 30 miles southwest of Milford and about the same distance from the Nevada border, a spokesman for the Bureau of Land Management said.

He said the company will have to slice off the top of a mountain containing the alunite, then dig about 400 feet below the level of the desert peaks to exhaust the main deposit of one million tons.

The company says it will go ahead with the mine if metallurgical testing in its suburban Denver pilot plant indicates the deposit can be mined profitably.

Company vice president William Walker said the outlook for the project is favorable, but he said final testing and feasibility studies in the pilot plant will not be completed until the middle of next year.

The mine and mill would be the only large-scale alunite operation in the United States, Walker said. He said the mill could handle about 12,000 tons of ore a day at peak production, or 500,000 tons a year.

Milford officials are going ahead with plans to enlarge the town's water and sewer capacities. City fathers say they have one eye on already-existing need and one eye on needs that might be generated by an influx of mine workers.

At the same time, real estate speculators have already boosted land values from about $400 to about $1,500 an acre in the past few months, said one Utah developer who owns land in the area.

A research firm, Cris Lewis and Associates, of Logan, is studying the impact of bringing several hundred construction and permanent workers into Milford.

Between 1,200 and 1,800 construction workers would be employed to build the mine and mill, with about 900 permanent employees when planned production begins in about two years. Total cost of the Utah and Idaho facilities would be about $250 million, most of which would be spent in Utah, Walker said.

It wasn't that funny

Alyson Mann, four months, doesn't see the humor in the situation as Jacquie McClellan laughs while holding Alyson in Champaign. This photo by Lou McClellan of the Urbana Courier won first place in the feature category of the Illinois AP Photographer's Association contest. (AP Wirephoto)

Chester, the machine, gets love letters and phone calls

BELLEVUE, Wash. (AP) — In her love letter to Chester, a young lady asked a question that's been on all our minds: "Can a 12-year-old girl and a three-year-old machine make it in today's world?"

Chester gets his share of love letters and fan letters, but so far it doesn't seem to have given him any egotistical delusions. He's still pretty much the same unassuming 6-foot-tall, 20-foot-long hunk of green metal with red and yellow glowing dials, meters and blinking lights he's always been.

And he still answers all the letters he can. Like that of the 12-year-old paramour with the burning question. She also had asked Chester what his hobbies are and whether he has any brothers or sisters.

Chester replied that his hobbies are old radio shows, comedy, music, lectures, and all sorts of diverse things. "I don't have any brothers or sisters," he said. "However, I have 24 tape decks and two video-tape decks."

He was just being modest. Actually, Chester has about 50 to 60 brothers and sisters around the country. They just aren't quite like him.

And he has a father: Dr. Boyd M. Bolvin, head of the Bellevue Community College Library, or the Library Media Center, as the college calls it.

Chester can do things like tell you corny jokes, scare you with old radio mysteries, teach you German, or shorthand, recite the latest speeches of local political candidates, blast you with vintage rock 'n' roll, or sing old Nixon campaign songs, complete with orchestra and chorus.

Bolvin said he became interested in lessons-by-telephone while doing graduate work at the University of Southern California. The $80,000 machine was installed at the college about five years ago, shortly after Bolvin arrived.

Chester was named after his installer, Chester Electronics of Chester, Conn. Somebody decided that Ubiquitous Dial Access Information Retrieval System didn't have the right ring to it.

Chester originally was meant for the college's students. They could simply call him by phone and pick their lesson. In the school library, the lectures are linked to small television screens where they can see what Chester is talking about.

The tapes are made by teachers, or Chester's voice, Mark Balsam, 27, who is in charge of programming.

But Chester's fame spread by word of mouth and his unlisted telephone number was passed on to others outside the campus. That's fine with Bolvin. He hopes listeners will come up with more program ideas.

Chester does have one quirk. To reach him in his air conditioned vault, a caller must use a touch-tone telephone. Dial phones don't have the necessary asterisk key.

And his phone bill is outrageous: $200 a month. But what can you expect from a machine that gets 30,000 calls a month on 10 telephone lines?

THANK YOU

TO ALL THE VOTERS, CAMPAIGN WORKERS, AND FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTORS. YOUR SUPPORT WAS TRULY APPRECIATED.

In memoriam

In memory of Joseph F. Eccles.

HOME WITH THE LORD
Only gone beyond the shadows to the realms of endless day; only held in sweet communion where the tears have passed away. You are blending with the angels in their chorus round the Throne; now you'll never know more sorrow, you've a mansion all your own! You have met the lovely Bridegroom and the friends who've gone before; and you would not journey earthward though you love us as of yore. For your hands are filled with treasures and your soul is thrilled with grace, joy we cannot half imagine now reflects from your dear face. Oh, so suddenly you left us for your mansion in the sky; in a twinkling you were raptured, you had no time to say "Good-bye." But we'll meet you soon in Heaven in that land so bright and fair; and we'll say a glad, "Good Morning!" nevermore to part up there. While on earth you loved to hear it, a sweet hymn we now recall: Though we cannot understand it, yet we know He knows it all. 'Tis a comfort as we sorrow, and the thorns our way oppose, that in Heaven grow the roses, all the rest our Father knows! We shall journey on with patience, brave in Jesus' precious name, till the day we meet in Heaven and we're changed but still the same! And your memory will be blessed as this earth we sadly roam, and we'll live the more for Jesus who has brought you safely Home!

Tackle Walker vetoes Lame duck session for lawmakers

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — The Illinois General Assembly reconvenes today for a brief lame duck fall session at which lawmakers will take a crack at some of Gov. Daniel Walker's vetoes.

But legislative leaders say a measure to raise lawmakers' salaries and possibly some other non-veto business will be considered and might even pass the pre-Christmas session.

It will be the last time for at least two years that Republicans hold the majority and the leadership positions. Tuesday's victories gave Democrats the control of both houses next year.

Although there probably will be some intra-chamber campaigning for leadership positions among the Democrats, the effect of the shift in power on the session votes is difficult to determine.

"You never know what's going to happen in a lame duck session," said Sen. Cecil A. Partee of Chicago, the Senate Democratic leader and the strongest contender for the president's chair.

Walker veto actions likely to arouse some fireworks include the reduction of a cost of living raise for welfare recipients, and reduction of pay raises passed by the legislature for college and university employees and state code employees under the governor's office.

Walker vetoed a total of 143 measures — 55 vetoed outright, 26 partially vetoed, 18 returned with recommendations for changes and 44 appropriations reduced.

The legislators' pay raise bill, along with measures to raise the salaries of judges and certain Walker cabinet members, caused a stir when they were passed by the House during the spring session.

The bills did not receive final action in the Senate but remained alive. Pay raise measures traditionally stand a better chance of passage once lawmakers are out from under the harsh lights of a campaign.

The state employee pay raise bill, reduced by Walker from $100 a month to $50 a month, is a sure bet for action.

"I know the state employee pay raise is going to be called," said Senate President William C. Harris, R-Pontiac. "Every member has had all kinds of communications on that subject."

An override attempt on a reduction in the cost of living increase for employees of the University of Illinois also has been vetoed by the bill's sponsor, Rep. Paul Stone, D-Sullivan.

The legislature appropriated enough money for an across the board 8 per cent pay hike for state college and university employees. Walker reduced the increase in each case to 5 per cent.

The volatile welfare issue also is likely to get an airing during the fall session.

Walker chopped more than $20.5 million from the Department of Public Aid budget and in the process cut an intended 10 per cent cost of living increase for welfare recipients to 5 per cent.

Approval by a majority of both houses is needed to restore a reduced amount to its original level. A total veto or veto of an entire item in a bill requires a three-fifths vote to override.

Altogether, Walker's veto pen sliced some $353 million from the monumental $8.693 billion appropriated by the legislature by the end of its stormy spring session, according to legislative appropriations staff members.

The vetoes reduced the total to $8.340 billion, still nearly half a billion dollars more than the $7.886 billion Walker requested last spring.

Other items that may be considered are reduction of appropriations for retirement in numerous agency bills and the veto of funds to be used for legal services controlled by Atty. Gen. William Scott.

Harris said veto attempts on these measures probably will be made, but acknowledged that if "the governor is going to pass the word on overrides, it may be difficult."

Crime alert program for Rochelle businessmen

ROCHELLE—Rochelle businessmen and their employees attended a seminar on "Hold-up" a crime alert, sponsored by the Rochelle Police Department Wednesday.

Rochelle Detective Keith Haggstad, speaking to the group, advised them to stay calm, do not resist, do not argue in the case of an armed robbery, but mentally compare the suspect with themselves.

"Is he taller than you are? ... is his hair longer than yours? ... what kind of footwear does he have on? ... try to keep a mental picture of the weapon he's pointing at you" ... and here Haggstad said, "that's sometimes pretty hard to do if you are looking down the barrel of a gun," but try to stay calm.

After an armed robbery, Haggstad said, "close off the area of the crime, do not try to clean up or move anything, you might destroy evidence, don't discuss the crime with fellow employees, this might cloud your judgment or change what you saw. Call the police, and cooperate with them, it makes everyone's job easier."

A movie, "You're Asking For It," vividly detailed several armed robberies and how different victims reacted to them. Also shown was an incident in a liquor store that used a closed-circuit TV for security, and how the alertness of the store's owner helped apprehend a wanted man.

A display board of various types of weapons confiscated by the Rochelle Police Department showing knives, brass knuckles and a variety of guns and shotguns, was discussed by Dennis Leifheit, a detective with the department. Leifheit also demonstrated the various places guns and knives can be worn. Small "Saturday Night Specials" will fit in a sock, shoe or boot ... other guns are worn with shoulder holsters, in the belt either to the front or back, and also with the regulation side holster.

Also on the board was a sawed-off double-barreled shotgun, and a single-barreled shotgun with the gun butt removed, both illegal, and both confiscated from subjects by the Rochelle Police Department.

Big vote margin for Anderson

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bamorough have a "this really hasn't happened to us" look as they discuss winning $50,000 in the Illinois State Lottery. (Telegraph Photo)

Winning $50,000 in lottery is 'like a dream'

ROCHELLE—"It was like a dream ... it still seems like a dream," stated Mrs. Ray Bamorough, Hillcrest, when she realized she held the lottery ticket that would net her $50,000.

Mrs. Bamorough had qualified in the weekly Bonanza and after registering the ticket at the Rockford Claims Center she said, "I was assured of winning $1,000, but the thrill and excitement of being a larger winner seemed unreal."

The Bamboroughs traveled to St. Clair Square, Fairview Heights, to be present for the drawing. They have no special plans for the money, taxes will take a "big bite," but beyond that they have made no plans.

Both work at the General Electric plant in DeKalb, where Mrs. Bamorough has worked for 28 years and her husband has been employed for 22 years. They plan to keep on working, but are looking forward to a trip to Florida this winter, although the trip was not decided upon because they won. Plans, tickets and reservations for their winter holiday had been made well in advance of the lottery drawing.

Mrs. Bamorough celebrated her birthday (she's not revealing what year) on Nov. 3 and, of her winnings, she said, "are the biggest birthday gift I ever hope to receive."

The winning ticket was bought at the Rochelle Kroger store, where the Bamboroughs said, "we buy from four to six tickets a week."

The money they won doesn't seem to pose that much of a problem, "there's always a place for it" they both said. They were more concerned at the present time with a problem with their septic tank and were anxious to have it back in operating order.

Mrs. Rentschler ordered to auction jewelry

PEKIN, Ill. (AP) — Mrs. Martha Rentschler has been ordered to place her jewelry on public auction to help make up part of a $75,000 judgement against her husband.

William H. Rentschler, who managed President Nixon's 1968 campaign in Illinois, was named a year ago in a federal indictment charging him with defrauding several banks of $1 million in loans. The case is pending.

The judgement involves a $102,915 promissory note taken out Aug. 8, 1972 at the Herget National Bank of Pekin.

Judge Arthur Gross of Circuit Court ordered Mrs. Rentschler's jewelry to be turned over to the Tazewell County sheriff by Nov. 25. A date for public auction has not yet been set.

Her jewelry is listed as a diamond watch, a diamond bracelet, two diamond pins, a diamond and pearl pin, and a strand of pearls.

Earlier deadline in VA income questionnaires

More than one million persons who will receive income questionnaires with Veteran Administration pension checks for November must return them by Jan. 1 instead of the customary Jan. 15 deadline.

VA officials explained the new deadline was set to relieve the annual logjam in preparation of January checks when pensioners returned the questionnaires near or after the former Jan. 15 deadline. Pensioners are urged to complete and return the questionnaires promptly.

Under the law, VA mails questionnaires to veterans on non-service-connected pension rolls, widows of veterans receiving pensions based on the non-service-connected death of a husband, and certain parents who receive monthly checks because of the service-connected death of a veteran or serviceman.

The VA noted most pensioners must file questionnaires each year. Exceptions include pensioners 72 years old or over who have been on pension rolls for two consecutive years, though they must report income changes when they occur.

Some beneficiaries who normally are exempt will receive questionnaires this year because of cost of living increases in their annuities.

The agency pointed out prompt return of questionnaires by the new Jan. 1 deadline will avoid delay in next year's checks. Checks cannot be sent until the questionnaire is received and processed.

For information and assistance in completing your income questionnaire card, contact the office of the Illinois Veterans Commission located at 611 First Avenue in Rock Falls, Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. or at City Hall in Dixon on Wednesdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The office will be closed Monday for Veterans Day.

No playoff for Mark Friederich as he recovers from broken neck

By MIKE CUNIFF
Telegraph Sports Editor
MOLINE—The 1974 Illinois High School football season will long be remembered by thousands of fans as the campaign in which the first state playoffs began, but Mark Friederich will have etched upon his mind only one play.

With most of the 529 Illinois football-playing schools completing a 9- or 10-game schedule, thousands of footballs have been snapped and almost as many tackles have been performed. However, the tackle Friederich made on Sept. 20 will be with him the rest of his life.

Mark, a defensive halfback for the Mt. Carroll Hawks, remembers the situation in the Upstate Illini contest versus Pearl City. Friederich was back on pass coverage. "Their fullback came through the line," Mark stated, "and I went up to make the tackle. I hit him in the numbers. But I've got this bad habit of spearing and I hit him that way. He went down and then everything went numb."

Ed Knirberger, Mt. Carroll athletic director and head varsity football coach, gave his version of the play. "Mark was playing right halfback when their (Pearl City's) fullback slanted off tackle. Mark came right up to get the tackle. There was a lot of congestion, with a lot of players in the immediate vicinity.

"Mark has a very bad habit of spearing (hitting the opposing runner with the head first and then the body) which is very dangerous," Knirberger continued. "We tried not to use him on defense his first three years because of this habit; but this season, we needed him and asked him to play defensive halfback."

When the play was whistled dead, Friederich was sprawled on the turf with a broken neck and a fracture of the fifth cervical vertebra. "The series just before the accident I was out on a pass," Mark recalls, "and I got rolled over."

"My ankle hurt but I didn't go out. I got hurt on the next defensive play. I almost knew it was going to happen," he added. "It was just like it was fixed. The play was just like you and him with no one else around. Nothing else mattered."

"He never lost consciousness," Knirberger commented. "We always have an ambulance service and doctor at all of our home games. We didn't think the injury was as severe as it actually was, but we could tell he was seriously hurt."

"He was handled in a very professional manner by everyone concerned," added Knirberger. "Our ambulance crew took charge. They put him on a basket stretcher and then switched him to a hard board with the help of our local physician, Dr. C. G. Pippert. The ambulance took him to Savanna (Hospital) from where he was transferred to Moline Public."

A startling transition in worlds has occurred since the injury, in Friederich's world. The 17-year-old senior had led an active athletic life with competition in football, basketball and track for Mt. Carroll. He was a double winner in the then Northwest Seven varsity track meet last spring, capturing the 880-yard dash in 2:10.7 and the mile in 4:54.5.

Now the days consist of nothing but lying in a hospital bed. "I was totally paralyzed for a week," Friederich said, "and then I started to get feeling on my left side. Now I have feeling on my left but I can't move that side."

"My right side is numb but I can move it the best," he continued. "The feeling will come. I'm doing all kinds of natural movements to try to get the feeling back."

The main problem is "my life is just so confined. A couple of weeks ago, I just had to keep moving my head to do something. The doctors told me I would be in traction for three months but now I will be transferred to Peoria in the next two weeks."

"I'll be at Peoria for probably two months for therapy treatments. The treatments are orientated to try to help me get as much feeling as I can."

Knirberger commented, "This injury is quite a concern to me and the school. Of course, there will be injuries in football but I've been at Mt. Carroll for seven years, and this is the first serious injury we've had.

"I've been playing or coaching football for 21 years and this has been very difficult to accept. He's a fine kid and there is still a question of how much he is going to recover. But everyone who is in coaching is trying to develop equipment and techniques to remove injurious situations."

"Some boys will always be hurt but you never hear as much about the ones that are hurt while riding around in cars. Football injuries are always magnified but more people are hurt in car accidents."

"You can't say Mark is lucky because he still has a broken neck but he feels inside he is going to lick this. And one thing in his favor is the training he's had in sports. Athletic competition teaches to take the bad with the good and to keep trying."

Indeed, if anything, the accident has focused Mark's attention to the positive effects. When asked whether he would recommend sports to prospective high school students, he replied, "Certainly. Everyone should have a chance to participate in any kind of sport he thinks he would like. Sports broaden him, you get to meet new people and it is an experience in itself."

"The game of life is just like sports. Athletics prepares you both physically and mentally for life because a person learns to take failures with the gains. The physical speaks for itself. Accidents are just a part of the game but the competition helps you for life."

"Everything goes into one. You learn to have a team attitude instead of everyone playing for himself. Failure helps you to understand failure and you learn there is not good points in everything. It keeps your mind and body in condition and helps you get along with others."

Friederich will graduate next spring. He has almost 14 credits thus far, with 16 being necessary for advancement. "I can make up what I've missed so there shouldn't be any problem there," he stated.

Mark had planned to enroll at Illinois State University or Platteville in Wisconsin after graduation from high school. He hopes to major in physical education and become either a coach or trainer. Sciences like biology and chemistry also interest him.

"What I miss the most is being with everybody," he stated. "I get letters and people come up to see you but I miss being with my friends. But I know now not to take anything for granted. Before, I would think nothing of taking a step or waving to a friend. But now, just a little twitch of a finger means a lot."

Those interested in sending Mark a card of letter can address the correspondence to Room 350 of Moline Public Hospital, Moline, Ill. 61265.

Wietlispach to Renkes

Sterling Golden Warrior end Doug Renkes covers up a Mike Wietlispach (11) pass late in the first quarter but Normal Community's Scott Swanson (blurred, to left of Renkes) came across quickly to drop Renkes for a gain of eight. The action occurred on a fourth and 10 for the Golden Warriors and the ball was turned over to the visitors. Kurt Swearingin scored five touchdowns to pace his team to a 49-26 win over Sterling. Normal Community belts Sterling STERLING—Senior quarterback Kurt Swearingin raced over, around and past the Sterling Golden Warriors for five touchdowns as the Normal Community Ironmen scored in every quarter to upend the Golden Warriors 49-26 at Roscoe Eades Stadium, here, in the first round of the Illinois Class 4A state football championships.

Swearingin had an outstanding evening with 238 total yards rushing, including his handful of touchdowns. The Ironman signal caller also threw a payoff pass to Doug Rosenbaum (23 yards), passed for a two-point conversion and added a two-point conversion on a run.

The Golden Warriors, champions of the Northeast NCIC, bolted to a 6-0 lead as sophomore fullback Rod Anderson galloped 53 yards down the left sidelines to score with only 5:54 expired. Swearingin missed a diving tackle attempt at the Normal 15 on the run.

But key blocks by Chris Granning and Rosenbaum sprung Swearingin for 47 yards and six points to knot the game just 1:33 later. Granning opened the hole at the line of scrimmage and Rosenbaum wiped out the final Sterling defender at the 10 as Swearingin was untouched on his jaunt. Rick Sharp's kick made it 7-6.

Normal then blocked a punt, with the ball being downed on the Golden Warrior two. Swearingin dove in on the first play to up the margin to 13-6, but Sharp's kick was wide. Another Sterling turnover enabled the Ironmen to move their lead to 21-6 as Swearingin bolted 28 yards at the 6:58 mark. Normal added the two-point conversion as Swearingin hit Dave Short with the pass.

Sterling quarterback Mike Wietlispach guided his team to a touchdown before the half expired as he pinpointed a 20-yard aerial into the waiting arms of Wes Williams in the left corner of the end zone, with only three ticks left on the clock.

Normal Community put the game away in the third quarter by notching 15 points via a 46-yard scoring burst by Swearingin, Swearingin's PAT run, a 23-yard payoff aerial from Swearingin to Rosenbaum and Sharp's kick.

Both teams reached the end zone twice in the final quarter, as Short scampered 31 yards and Swearingin zoomed in from 21 for his fifth touchdown of the night and 19th of the season for the Ironmen. Sterling got six-pointers from Williams on a 77-yard fumble recovery, and Perry Frey on a three-yard run. Wietlispach passed to Doug Renkes for one conversion but the final effort was broken up.

Frey's score came after the senior halfback rambled 73 yards, only to be caught from behind at the Normal three by defensive back Bob Miller. Anderson paced Sterling with 110 yards rushing in 14 carries, including the 53-yard run. Wietlispach added 72 yards in 10 attempts, while Frey chipped in with 83 in three.

Gary Skrogstad had 24 in a quartet of tries. Williams finished with a dozen yards in three carries. Wietlispach completed five of 12 passes for 48 yards and one touchdown. Normal picked off three of the aerials, along with one of reserve quarterback Mark Holldorf's throws.

Swearingin rang up his 238 yards in 19 attempts, with the longest gain being 48 yards. Short added 116 in 20 efforts while Mike Spelios had five runs for three net yards. Swearingin had seven completions in nine passes for 78 yards, with Rosenbaum grabbing three for 45 yards, and Short and Miller getting a pair each for 20 and 13 yards, respectively.

Glenbrook North nips Evanston 7-6

By The Associated Press

The elimination process has begun in the first high school football playoffs in Illinois history with one highly regarded team, Evanston, an upset victim in opening-round play.

The Wildcats were knocked off Wednesday night in Class 5A, the largest-school division in the five-class quest for the state championship.

The surprise victor was Glenbrook North which eked out a 7-6 win over the Wildcats who were favored to reach the championship rounds at Illinois State University in Normal Nov. 22-23.

But other Class 5A favorites scored strongly as East St. Louis extended its winning streak to 20 games with a 34-21 triumph over Quincy and Chicago's Gordon Tech defeated Hinsdale Central 22-12.

In other Class 5A action, Homewood-Flossmoor edged Hillcrest 9-8; Villa Park Wilbrook downed Niles West 21-3; St. Viator of Arlington Heights beat Deerfield 19-8; East Leyden dumped Schaumburg 14-8 and Naperville won over Glenbard West 19-14 in a night contest.

In Class 4A, Frank Shellenbach made it a one-man show for Barrington and scored all five Bronco touchdowns in a 34-19 romp over Glenbard South.

Peoria Central overwhelmed Granite City North 54-21; Normal Community toppled Sterling 49-26; Centralia crushed Mascoutah 32-7; and Mattoon dumped Mt. Vernon 38-21 in other high-scoring Class 4A contests.

A 62-yard punt return by Ira Matthews sparked Rockford East's 30-13 victory over Belvidere, while Thornton Fractional South held Ridgeview to one touchdown for a 17-7 win.

Although they lost their first three games this season, the Joliet Catholic Hilltoppers had little trouble with Tinley Park and breezed to a 22-8 victory.

Touchdowns by Joe Ryan and Rick Hoffman piloted Immaculate Conception of Elmhurst to a 14-7 victory over Lisle in the Class 3A playoffs. Quarterback Scott Hall led West Chicago to a 20-14 triumph over Wauconda as he hit on 12 of 17 passes for 210 yards.

Running back Chris Leaman rushed for 123 yards and scored three touchdowns to lead Geneseo to a 37-22 triumph over Aurora Central Catholic.

Gurnee Warren threatened most of the game but could get the ball across only once in its 7-0 victory over Rockton Hononegah. Wayne Mill racked up 220 yards in 27 carries for Warren and also scored the solo touchdown.

Quincy Catholic scored all its points in the second half, including a TD on a 54-yard run by Marvin Smith, to blank Taylorville 22-0.

In other Class 3A action, Mt. Carmel nipped Mt. Zion 14-13; Sparta defeated Alton Marquette 6-3 and Morton eliminated Mokena 28-14.

In Class 2A contests, previously unbeaten LeRoy lost to Watseka 51-7 as John Esmont scored two touchdowns for the victors. Sherrard racked up 377 yards in its 33-8 win over Stockton and Galva defeated Eureka 29-21.

Decatur St. Theresa won its 31st straight game, downing Gillespie 20-3. Held scoreless for the first two periods, Decatur was ignited by Jeff Hannapel who in the second half returned the opening kick 82 yards for a TD.

Other Class 2A action saw Stillman Valley over Freeport Aquin 21-7; Alexis blanking Oneida ROVA 21-0; Petersburg Porta over Carthage Hancock Central 14-9 and Eldorado edging Carlinville 8-6.

Class 1A had Wednesday's only overtime contest as LaMoille defeated Princeville 18-12. Quarterback Brad Geuther scored the winning touchdown.

Kincaid shut out New Berlin 6-0 with Eric Edwards scoring on a one-yard run, and Casey came from behind to defeat Broadlands ABL 10-7.

Genoa-Kingston downed Milledgeville 7-6 in a defensive game that produced few scoring opportunities. Both TDs were on punt returns. The margin of victory was the extra point when Milledgeville's Ed Edlund's kick was wide.

Flanagan routed Cullum Tri-Point 56-0 as Gregg Gundy scored five touchdowns for the winners. In other Class 1A battles, Villa Grove sacked Jacksonville Routt 14-12; Stronghurst Southern tripped Table Grove VIT 26-8; and Concord Triopia sank Illiopolis 45-0.

Red Wings like tie

By The Associated Press
Don't tell the Detroit Red Wings that old sports axiom that a tie is like kissing your sister.

"When you're down 2-0 in the first period against Montreal and get a tie, it's like a win," said Detroit Coach Alex Delvecchio, whose Red Wings wound up in a 4-4 tie with the Canadiens.

In other National Hockey League games Wednesday, the New York Rangers defeated California 7-3, Atlanta edged the New York Islanders 2-1, Buffalo stopped Chicago 6-4 and Toronto downed Minnesota 7-4.

In the only World Hockey Association game, the Quebec Nordiques defeated Vancouver 5-3.

Red Berenson's second goal of the season at 13:06 of the second period drew Detroit into the 4-4 deadlock. The goal came when Detroit pulled its goalie for an extra attacker as a penalty was about to be called on the Canadiens.

Another Detroit goal was scored by Marcel Dionne when the Canadiens had two men in the penalty box.

Toronto center Darryl Sittler scored three goals and defenseman Jim McKenney tallied twice to lead the Maple Leafs. Minnesota goalie Cesare Maniago faced 51 Toronto shots as the North Stars have now surrendered 23 goals in their last three games.

Tom Lysiak's goal on a rebound shot midway through the second period lifted the Flames to their victory over the Islanders. New York scored first on Andre St. Laurent's goal, but Atlanta tied it up a minute later on a power play when Eric Vail deflected Dave Bialowas' shot into the net.

The Rangers blasted six goals in the second period, including two by Rod Gilbert, to easily break their three-game losing streak. It was the first loss at home for the Seals this season in six outings.

Gilbert also scored the first goal of the game before California took a short-lived 2-1 lead.

In Buffalo, Gil Perreault's 300th NHL point in as many career games boosted the Sabres to victory. Rene Robert added two goals for the winners as Buffalo extended its unbeaten string to six games.

Quebec boosted its record to 6-2 behind Rejean Houle's two-goal game, although none of the Nordiques seemed to be pleased with their winning performance.

"We won it, but that's all," said Quebec captain J.C. Tremblay. "We didn't play very well at all."

After a scoreless first period, Bob Walton punched in the first of his two goals for Vancouver.

Havlicek and Ard aid Celtic victory

By The Associated Press

John Havlicek's light touch and Jim Ard's heavy muscle combined to knock out the Portland Trail Blazers Wednesday night.

Havlicek scored a basketful of points and Ard kept Bill Walton from doing the same as the Boston Celtics took a 128-110 National Basketball Association victory.

"Walton just wasn't playing well," said Portland Coach Lenny Wilkens, pointing out why he pulled his first rookie from the game with seven minutes left.

The star of UCLA's powerhouse last year, Walton had less than a powerhouse performance against the irrepressible Ard. He only scored 12 points and had 11 rebounds.

Henry Finkel helped Ard bottle up Walton while Havlicek went wild. The veteran star scored 40 points.

ripped the Chicago Bulls 105-90 and the Buffalo Braves smashed the New Orleans Jazz 110-98.

Jo Jo White had 21 points and Paul Westphal wound up with 14 for the Celtics. Sidney Wicks led Portland with 24 points, and John Johnson had 18. Geoff Petrie had 17.

Bobby Smith scored a career-high 41 points to lead Cleveland over Washington. Smith, a six-year veteran, connected on 17 of 24 shots and made all seven of his free throws to top his previous high by four points.

Cleveland bolted to a 41-18 lead early in the second quarter and then held off the Bulls, leaders of the Central Division, for their sixth victory in seven games.

Wes Unseld led the Bullets with 21 points and 13 rebounds. Elvin Hayes added 16 points and 14 rebounds.

Dave Bing scored 30 points and Bob Lanier added 27 to power Detroit past Kansas City-Omaha.

The Pistons built a 64-48 half-time lead and coasted the rest of the way.

Origer announces Fire year is finished

By HOWARD SMITH
AP Sports Writer
The Chicago Fire says it is through for the year. Portland Storm players are refusing to play another game until they're paid and the Charlotte Hornets have literally lost their shirts. It was just another day in the life and times of the World Football League.

The show must go on, however, and the WFL continued to struggle gracefully toward the conclusion of its first season Wednesday night with Birmingham beating Philadelphia 26-23, Shreveport topping Charlotte 19-14 and the Hawaiians whipping Southern California 29-8.

Tonight's schedule calls for Chicago at Memphis and Portland at Florida, but WFL schedules lately have been as dependable as subway gum machines.

Birmingham built up a 26-0 lead in the first half of its game with Philadelphia behind the running of Art Cantrelle and Paul Robinson, who scored one touchdown apiece, and then held off a Bell rally. The game ended in a brawl that took officials several minutes to break up.

The announced attendance was 22,963, about half of what the Americans have been averaging.

Touch Football
Farleys' defeated the Royal Palms 28-8. Pat Loves' 40-yard pass reception from Dave Lenox opened the scoring in the first quarter. Dave Love intercepted one pass and took it in for another score. Rick Shroyer scored on a 10 yard pass and Tom Fassler scored on a 45 yard screen play. Dan Shroyer ended the scoring on a safety. The Palms' only score came on an interception by Jeff Foster.

Victory Cafe turned on its scoring machine by defeating the Pizza Hut 76-0. Leading this scoring binge were Jeff Ohlen-dorf and Rich Vana with three touchdowns each. Bill Wolf took two in from his quarterback position. Tim Oester, Terry Lynch and Lou Bontz had one score apiece.

Dicks' Place defeated Borg-Warner 27-6. TD passes were caught by Steve Wade (two) and Dick Hermes (one). Pass interceptions were the key to the Orchard Glen victory over the Oakwood Raiders team 22-15. Jeff Musser intercepted seven passes for the Glen and then on offense caught a pair of Lloyd Bollman touchdowns passes. For the Raiders, Bill Miller was the defensive star with five interceptions; Ralph Contreras picked off one of Bollmans' passes. Al Bollman scored the last Glen touchdown.

Jim Nance ran for 160 yards and Rocky Thompson added 105 to lead Shreveport past Charlotte. Nance scored the winning touchdown from two yards out with 5:11 left to play.

The game drew 10,697 fans in Shreveport. Randy Johnson threw a pair of touchdown passes to John Isenbarger, and Al Davis and Vince Clements ran for two others in the Hawaiians' victory over Southern California before an announced crowd of 13,780 at Honolulu.

Kermit Johnson's touchdown in the fourth period averted a shutout for the Sun, now 13-6. The Hawaiians improved their record to 8-11.

Fire owner Tom Origer handed the stricken league another headache Wednesday when he announced that his club won't play its final game next week in Philadelphia and won't participate in the playoffs.

"We don't deserve to be in the playoffs and I'm against the eight-team thing, anyway," said Origer, whose team has lost nine straight games.

A league spokesman said WFL President Donald Regan will look into the Chicago matter Friday.

Origer, a condominium builder, says business is bad and he's tired of losing money. "Right now I'm looking for investors," he said, "and if I don't find them I'll sell the club. I have lost about $800,000 thus far and I don't want to take losses by myself in the future."

An unidentified Storm player said Wednesday he and his teammates haven't been paid in several weeks and they won't play against Florida tonight unless they get paid before the game.

"We won't play without the money because we've been led along for several weeks now, getting only partial pay for a couple of games and no pay at all for the last two games," the player said.

Portland has reportedly been guaranteed $50,000 by the Florida team but the money won't be paid until the day after the game when the Blazers are supposed to be purchased by a phantom group of investors.
